

A New Naturalism - Workshop Program

Thursday

- 9:00-9:15 Introduction & Welcome: A New Naturalism
- 9:20-10:50 Johannes Jäger – “From Naturalistic Philosophy of Biology to Philosophical Biology”
- 10:50-11:20 Coffee Break
- 11:20-12:50 James DiFrisco – “Clarity, Fundamentality, and Importance: Conceptual Methodology for Philosophical Biology”
- 12:50-14:00 Lunch
- 14:00-15:30 Daniel S. Brooks – “Against Clarity: Open-Ended Problems, Content Acquisition, and Ambiguity in Scientific Reasoning”
- 15:30-16:15 Panel A: Conceptual Methodologies for a Complex World
- 16:15-16:30 Coffee Break
- 16:30-18:00 Jacqueline Sullivan – “Collaborations at the Intersection of Naturalism and Epistemology of Science with a Focus on Behavioral Neuroscience”

Friday

- 9:30-11:00 Steven Orzack – “Philosophy of Biology: The beginning of the end? / The end of the beginning?”
- 11:00-11:15 Coffee Break
- 11:15- 12:45 Daniel J. Nicholson – “How the Philosophy of Biology Lost Sight of Biology (and What We Can Do About It)”
- 12:45-14:00 Lunch
- 14:00-14:45 Panel B: Reinvigorating Philosophy from a Scientific Point of View
- 14:45-16:15 Luz Christopher Seibert – “Who makes the rules around here? A Meta-Classificatory approach to Categories”
- 16:15-16:30 Coffee Break
- 16:30-18:00 Melinda Bonnie Fagan – “Explanatory particularism, interdisciplinarity, and the new naturalism”
- 18:00-18:30 General Discussion – reflection, publication plans, further contributor invites.