Wallotstraße 19, 14193 Berlin

Telefon +49 30 89001 0

Thursday 8th November

13:00-13:30      Welcome and Introduction

13:30-14:30      Self-presentation round

Question 1: Who are you? What are your main research questions related to the network project and what kind of approaches do you use? Why are you interested in participating in this network and how do you imagine your own contribution? From which discipline are you speaking? Etc. (max 3 minutes)

14:30-15:30      Working groups (1): The transformations and futures of work: issues and processes

Question 2: According to you, what are the most important issues related to the transformation and the future of work that should be addressed by this transnational and interdisciplinary network? Why and how?

In small groups of 3 persons, each participant formulates her statement to Question 2 (5 minutes per person), followed by a discussion. Each group nominates a volunteer who moderates and watches the time and one who will summarize the internal discussion and present it in the plenum after the break.

15:30-16:00      Coffee break

16:00-18:00      General discussion

Presentation of the group summaries relative to question 2 (10 minutes for each group) followed by a general discussion.

19:30              Dinner (Jules Verne, Schlüterstraße 61)

Friday 9th November

9:00-10:00 Working groups (2): Identification of concrete subject matters for the network

Question 3: What concrete subject matters and methods could allow us as a network to embrace the processes identified in the concept paper (siliconization, financialization, democratization, ecologization; see attachment)?

In small groups of 3 persons, each participant formulates her statement to Question 3 (5 minutes per person), followed by a discussion. Each group nominates a volunteer who moderates and watches the time and one who will summarize the internal discussion and present it in the plenum after the break.

10:00-10:15 Coffee break

10:15-12:30 General discussion

Presentation of the group summaries relative to question 3 (10 minutes for each group) followed by a general discussion and pre-selection of 3 or 4 concrete research subject matters for the network

12:30-13:30 Lunch

13:30-14:45 Thematic tables

Around 4 thematic tables, the participants explore a question about how the social sciences can address the identified issues. What about concepts and categories of analysis, especially from a transnational perspective? What about the concrete ways of acting for this transnational and interdisciplinary network? After 15 minutes, the participants switch to another thematic table.

- 1. Transformations of work and categories/tools of the historical and social sciences*
- 2. How shall/can we address the future in the historical and social sciences?*
- 3. Work of the future and interdisciplinary collaboration*
- 4. Work of the future and transnational approaches/collaborations*

14:45-15:45 General discussion introduced by a synthesis prepared by each table coordinator

15:45-16:00 Coffee break

16:00-17:30 Network organization and schedule

What do we choose to do together and according to what schedule? General discussion about schedule, content, and organization of the next meetings and events (summer school, public conferences...), outcomes, acronym and extent of the network...
