

Wissenschaftskolleg zu Berlin

INSTITUTE FOR ADVANCED STUDY

Network Working Futures

June 2, 2023

Wissenschaftskolleg zu Berlin

International Conference

Sustainable Work II: A Socio-Ecological Approach to Work?

Program

9.00 a.m.–10.30 a.m.

Panel I

Chair: Martin Kuhlmann (Sociological Research Institute (SOFI) Göttingen)

Lisa Herzog (University of Groningen, Fellow 2017/2018) and Bénédicte Zimmermann (EHESS, Paris and Permanent Fellow of the Wissenschaftskolleg zu Berlin)

Sustainable Work: The Need for Multi-Level Politicization

Flavia Maximo Pereira (Federal University of Ouro Preto, Brazil) and Ania Zbyszewska (Carleton University, Canada)

Towards a Radical Concept of Sustainable Work – Counterhegemonic Knowledges and Practices

10.30 a.m.–11.00 a.m.

Coffee Break

- 11.00 a.m.–12.30 p.m. Panel II
Chair: Sasha Disko (Energy Systems Deutsches Museum, Munich)
- Tatiana Llaguno Nieves (University of Groningen)
Sustainable Lives: The Problem of Unsustainability from the Perspective of Reproductive Labor
- Geneviève Pruvost (Centre d'études des mouvements sociaux, CNRS/EHESS, Paris)
Is it sustainable to live and work in short circuits? Ecofeminist and bioregionalist perspectives
- 12.30 p.m.–1.30 p.m. Lunch
- 1.30 p.m.–4.00 p.m. Panel III
Chair: Léa Renard (Max-Weber-Institute of Sociology, Heidelberg University)
- Ben Crawford (University of Liverpool) and David Whyte (Queen Mary University of London, QMUL Centre for Climate Crime and Climate Justice)
Climate bargaining and UK trade unions: expanding the boundaries of collective labour rights?
- Antoine Bonnemain (ACTé Laboratory, Université Clermont Auvergne, France)
Acting on the Quality of Work to Develop Its Sustainability: An Occupational Psychology Approach
- Geoffroy Gonzalez (Centre Georg Simmel, EHESS, Paris)
Sustainable Work in Multi-Stakeholder Cooperatives: A Permanent Negotiation