

Programme: Social Justice and Contemporary Muslim Ethics

Thursday (March 16, 2017)

8:45- 11.15am: Session 1

Introduction and Orientations: Revitalising Muslim Ethics

Sa'diyya Shaikh (WIKO fellow/University of Cape Town)

Patriarchal Ethics and Moral Contestations:

Rethinking 'Justice' in Muslim Legal Tradition

Ziba Mir-Hosseini (SOAS)

Recovering the Ethical in Shari'a: Practices, Politics and Tradition

Ebrahim Moosa (University of Notre Dame)

11:15 Tea/Coffee Break

11:30 – 1pm Session 2

Queer subjectivities questioning ethical presumptions

Farah Zeb (Exeter University)

Relational ethics or an ethics of relationality

Nina Hoel (University of Oslo)

Lunch 1-2:30pm

2:30 – 4pm Session 3

Reflections on The Ethical Condition

Michael Lambek (WIKO fellow/University of Toronto)

General Discussions

Dinner: 7pm

Friday (March 17, 2017)

9.30- 11am Session 4

Hermeneutics, Islamic Feminist Tafsir, and Quranic Ethics

Omaima Abou-Bakr (Cairo University) and Mulki Al-Sharmani, (University of Helsinki)

Walking with Sheba: Qur'anic hermeneutics and vulnerable bodies

Seemi Bushra Ghazi (University of British Columbia)

11 am Tea/Coffee

11.30 – 1pm: Session 5

Rising to the Occasion

Rabia Terri Harris (Muslim Peace Fellowship)

Human Dignity: Joining the Outer and Inner in Islamic Ethics

Siraj Scott Kugle (Emory University)

1pm – 2:30pm Lunch and Break

2.30 – 4:30 pm General Discussion

Dinner: 7pm