

The Double-Facing Constitution: Legal Externalities and the Reshaping of Constitutional Order

Thursday, June 22nd

Session 1 9.30 - 12.30

Moderator David Dyzenhaus (Toronto and Wiko)

Welcome--Daniel Schönplug (Wiko)

Evan Fox-Decent (McGill), 'The necessity and means of cosmopolitan law'

Karen Knop (Toronto), 'Constitutionalizing Comity'

Mattias Kumm (NYU and WZB), 'The Justificatory Link between the National and the International Legal Orders'

Alexander Somek (Vienna), 'From Republican self-love to cosmopolitan amour proper'

Coffee Break 11.00 - 11.25

Session 2 2.00 - 3.30

Moderator: Sujit Choudhry (Berkeley)

Thomas Poole (LSE), 'Act of State in Common Law Courts'

Theodore Christov (George Washington), 'The Inside and Outside of the Hobbesian State'

Coffee Break 3.30 – 4.00

Session 3 4.00 - 6.00

Moderator: Helmut Aust (Free University)

Jacco Bomhoff (LSE), 'Legalism and the Inward- and Outward-facing Constitution in the US: 1945-1975'

Asha Kaushal (UBC), 'Immigration Law and the Double Facing Constitution'

Campbell McLachlan (Victoria), 'Jurisdiction unbound'

Friday June 23rd

Session 1 9.30 - 11.00

Moderator: Jacco Bomhoff (LSE)

Audrey Macklin (Toronto), 'The Horizontal and the Vertical Constitution'
Dieter Grimm (Wiko), TBA

Coffee Break 11.00 - 11.30

Session 2 11.30 - 1.00

Moderator: Thomas Poole (LSE)

David Dyzenhaus (Toronto and Wiko), 'The Janus-Faced Constitution'
Christoph Möllers (Humboldt and Wiko), 'Janus' Democracy'